Hike to Kärkevagne: All-day excursion

Here the inland ice left enormous boulders on the most beautiful mountain meadows in Sweden. If we're lucky, we'll find stones with glittering garnets embedded in them. We arrive at Trollsjön at the very end of the valley, a lake whose waters are so clear that you can see the bottom 40 metres below.

Låkkatjåkko Mountain Station: Long, all-day excursion

After the train journey to Låkkta, we make our way on foot through the valley up towards the mountain station. The guide tells you about the area and what we see

Visit to the Nature Centre and walk along the Rallarvägen trail

After a guided tour round the Nature Centre, we head off in search of the plants and animal tracks that we have just been learning about. The guide also tells us about the toilsome and arduous life of the navvies at the start of the last century.

The art of hunting grouse with a pointer

Joachim Almgren and his prize hunting dog treat you to an exciting hunting display and an enlightening talk on grouse hunting with pointers. Leaving you wiser about the differences between the willow grouse and ptarmigan, hunting methods, the interplay between hunter and dog and how bird dogs are trained.
